May 24th, 2020 - The pitch resulting from a particular set up can vary by a surprisingly large degree depending on who is playing it. The cavities inside the player's mouth and throat are major influences on pitch. Read Jack Brymer's wise words on the subject in his book "Clarinet Yehudi Menuhin Music Guides" Pages 131-2.

Jacques Lancelot

Jack Brymer
May 27th, 2020 - John Jack Alexander Brymer OBE 27 January 1915 - 15 September 2003 was an English clarinettist. The times called him the leading clarinettist of his generation perhaps of the century. He was largely self-taught as a player and he performed as an amateur before being invited by Sir Thomas Beecham to join the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in 1947.

The clarinet as extension of the voice and expressive

May 29th, 2020 - Clarinet tone reveal that clarinettists act as expressive conduits of musical styles in diverse ensembles. My methodology includes researching four case studies of clarinetists who perform in four stylistically different ensembles: Western art and contemporary art music, klezmer, and jazz, as discussed in chapter two.
